1 On June 2, 2025, the Court received the Stipulated Settlement Agreement and Release
2 entered into between Larry Tran and Robert Cohen (collectively "Plaintiffs") and Sprouts Farmers
3 Market, Inc. and SFM, LLC (collectively "Sprouts" or "Defendants").

4 On October 3, 2025, the Court held a hearing on the Motion For Preliminary Approval Of 5 Class Action Settlement and required the submission of further documents.

6 The Court has received a revised Stipulated Settlement Agreement and Release
7 (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Settlement" or "Agreement") entered into between Plaintiffs
8 and Sprouts, as well as the Declaration Of Christopher Q. Longley, Esq. of Atticus Administration, 9 LLC.

10 After reviewing the Agreement and other documents filed in support of the Motion For 11 Preliminary Approval Of Class Action Settlement, and having considered the arguments by the 12 respective parties, THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS THE FOLLOWING:¹

13 1. The Court hereby grants preliminary approval of the proposed Settlement upon the 14 terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement. The Court preliminarily finds that the terms of 15 the proposed Settlement are fair, adequate and reasonable and comply with California Code of 16 Civil Procedure § 382 and California Rules of Court Rule 3.769.

17 2. The Court orders that the following Settlement Class is preliminarily certified for 18 settlement purposes only: All persons within the United States to whom Defendants provided an 19 electronically printed receipt at the point of sale or transaction, in a transaction occurring
20 nationwide from August 16, 2020 through October 31, 2022 for debit and credit cards excluding 21 EBT cards and from March 15, 2021 through April 15, 2023 for EBT cards, and wherein the 22 receipt displayed more than the last five digits of the person's credit card or debit card number.
23 The Parties understand and agree that the terms "credit card(s)" or "debit card(s)" includes EBT 24 cards for purposes of settlement.

25 3. The Court finds that, for purposes of the Settlement, the above-defined Settlement 26 Class meets all of the requirements for class certification. The Court further finds that, for

27 ¹ Capitalized terms in this Order shall have the same meanings as in the Agreement, unless 28 indicated otherwise.

1 purposes of the Settlement, the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure § 382 and 2 California Rules of Court Rule 3.769 are satisfied and that (a) the Settlement Class is 3 ascertainable, (b) the members of the Settlement Class are so numerous that joinder is 4 impracticable, (c) there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class members
5 which predominate over any individual questions, (d) the representative Plaintiffs' claims are 6 typical of the claims of the Settlement Class members, (e) the Class Representatives and Class
7 Counsel have fairly, adequately, reasonably and competently represented and protected the 8 interests of the Settlement Class throughout the litigation, and (f) a class action is superior to other 9 available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

10 4. The Court appoints plaintiffs Larry Tran and Robert Cohen as the Class
11 Representatives for the Settlement Class.

12 5. The Court appoints attorneys, Chant Yedalian of Chant & Company A Professional 13 Law Corporation and Todd M. Friedman and Adrian R. Bacon of Law Offices Of Todd M.
14 Friedman, P.C., as Class Counsel for the Settlement Class.

15 6. The Court appoints Atticus Administration, LLC as the Settlement Administrator.

16 7. The Court preliminarily finds that the Settlement is the product of serious, 17 informed, non-collusive negotiations conducted at arm's-length by the Parties and with the 18 assistance of, and as a result of a mediator's compromise proposal made by, the mediator Hon. S.
19 James Otero (Ret.). In making these preliminary findings, the Court considered, among other 20 factors, the potential statutory damages claimed in the lawsuit on behalf of Plaintiffs and members
21 of the Settlement Class, Sprouts potential liability, the fact that the Court had previously dismissed
22 this matter, the risks of continued litigation including trial outcome, delay and potential appeals,
23 the substantial benefits available to the Settlement Class as a result of the Settlement, and the fact
24 that the proposed Settlement represents a compromise of the Parties' respective positions rather 25 than the result of a finding of liability at trial. The Court further preliminarily finds that the terms
26 of the Settlement have no obvious deficiencies and do not improperly grant preferential treatment
27 to any individual member of the Settlement Class.

1 8. The Court approves the proposed manner of the notice of Settlement set forth in the 2 Agreement. The Court also approves of the proposed notice to the Settlement Class, including the 3 Claim Form-R, Short-Form Claim Form, Email Notice, Targeted Internet Notice, Newspaper
4 Notice, and Full Notice, attached to the Agreement as Exhibits A-F, respectively.

5 9. The Court finds that the proposed manner of the notice of Settlement set forth in 6 the Agreement, and the proposed notice to the Settlement Class, which the Court approves of, as 7 set forth in paragraph 8, above, constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances and 8 is in full compliance with the United States Constitution, the California Constitution, California
9 Rules of Court, and the requirements of due process. The Court further finds that the notice fully 10 and accurately informs Settlement Class members of all material elements of the lawsuit and 11 proposed class action Settlement, of each member's right to be excluded from the Settlement, and 12 each member's right and opportunity to object to the proposed class action Settlement and be heard 13 at the fairness (final approval) hearing.

14 10. Settlement Class members will have until sixty (60) calendar days after the first 15 date of posting the Full Notice on the Settlement Website to exclude themselves from the 16 Settlement (the "Opt-Out Deadline"). Settlement Class members may opt out by timely sending a 17 written request to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than the Opt-Out Deadline.
18 The Settlement Administrator shall promptly provide a copy of any opt-out request to counsel for 19 each of the Parties. Settlement Class members who timely opt out of the Settlement: (a) will not 20 be a part of the Settlement; (b) will have no right to receive any benefits under the Settlement; (c)
21 will not be bound by the terms of the Settlement; and (d) will not have any right to object to the 22 terms of the Settlement or be heard at the fairness (final approval) hearing.

23 11. Any Settlement Class member, on his or her own, or through an attorney hired at 24 his or her own expense, may object to the terms of the Settlement, including, but not limited to, an 25 award to Class Counsel of attorneys' fees which Class Counsel will seek in the amount of 26 $1,666,666.67 and which will be paid from the Cash Fund, an award to Class Counsel of Class
27 Counsel's litigation costs of up to $75,000 also to be paid from the Cash Fund, and an incentive

1 payment to the Class Representatives Larry Tran and Robert Cohen with each receiving an 2 incentive payment of $10,000 to be paid from the Cash Fund. To be effective, any such objection
3 must be in writing and include the contents described in paragraph 12 below, and must be mailed
4 to the Settlement Administrator postmarked no later than sixty (60) calendar days after the first 5 date of posting the Full Notice on the Settlement Website. Any objections not raised properly and
